

Colchester Zoological Society is home to over 150 species and is dedicated to supporting conservation projects around the globe. As an award-winning visitor attraction with over 1 million guests visiting each year, every staff member at the Zoo works together to ensure that our guests have an enjoyable and unforgettable experience.

JOB TITLE: Deputy Team Leader – Mixed Taxa Section, including tigers

An exciting position has arisen for an experienced Deputy Team Leader to join our team and contribute to our mission at CZS in a full-time role working within our tiger section; a mixed taxa section responsible for Amur tigers, grey wolves, bush dogs, Barbary macaques, gelada baboons, Philippine spotted deer, smooth-coated otters, Chilean flamingos, African vulture species and various reptile and fish species.

JOB SUMMARY: The candidate will work within the Animal Department to carry out husbandry duties and maintain high standards of welfare for the animal species in their care. As a Deputy Team Leader, the candidate will be required to input ideas for the continual progression and development of animal husbandry, breeding management and enclosure design on the section.

Alongside the section's Team Leader, the job holder will be responsible for mentoring and managing more junior employed staff members; lead keepers, senior keepers and qualified keepers, and volunteers; student keepers and work experience students. The job holder will also be responsible for deputising to the Team Leader and leading the section in their absence.

The candidate will ensure, and be able to develop, safe working protocols, practices and risk assessments for working in and around the species on the section.

The job holder will deliver enclosure encounters and experiences to zoo visitors for a range of species across the section, as well as deliver educational husbandry content to visiting college groups. The candidate will also look to lead internal zoo subcommittees, where appropriate, and be willing to represent, and present, at external conferences on behalf of CZS.

MAIN JOB PURPOSE:

1. Provide excellent husbandry standards and welfare for a range of species
2. Manage employed and voluntary members of the animal section and lead the section in the Team Leader's absence
3. Produce safe working practices across the animal section
4. Deliver enclosure encounters and experiences to zoo visitors, educational groups and for social media
5. Represent CZS in external settings where required

OTHER KEY ACTIVITIES:

- Demonstrate commitment to continuous personal development
- Perform other duties as reasonably directed by the animal section's Team Leader and the Animal Management Team (Zoological Director, Curator of Living Collections, Manager of Living Collections and Head Keeper)

WORKING HOURS: This is a full-time position. An average of 40 hours a week (5 days) which will include regular weekend work and will increase in busy periods.

UNIFORM: Full uniform (including boots) will be provided. Full uniform must be worn at all times.

SALARY: £32,032 per annum

EVALUATION: For the first five months of employment, the jobholder will be asked to complete a one month, three month and five month self-assessment. This will gauge their feelings of the job and assess their progress towards meeting targets.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT:

- CZS is a non-smoking environment and smoking is not permitted by members of staff whilst on the premises.
- CZS is an equal opportunities employer.
- You may be required to work offsite on animal transfers on occasion.

Whilst doing this job, the employee is likely to be exposed to:

- Category 1/1A animals
- Outside weather conditions
- Tropical exhibits with high temperatures
- Moving mechanical parts
- Toxic or caustic chemicals
- Lifting heavy loads
