QUEUES

Welcoming over 1 million guests each year, queues and crowds are inevitable at busy periods, especially at our very popular restaurants, retail outlets and guest services office.

If you require assistance, please let a team member know and they will explain how they may be able to assist you. This usually consists of giving you the option of waiting in the area, away from the queues, but within sight of the team, until the majority of the queue has moved on, before then calling you forward for a more relaxed experience.

Of course, it is your responsibility to make team members aware of this in good time. It is highly unlikely that you will be moved to the front of the queue ahead of other guests.

ASSISTANCE DOGS

At Colchester Zoo we understand how important your assistance dog is in supporting you during your visit.

We have a specific Assistance Dogs Accessibility Map: setting out our Code of Conduct for assistance dog owners, ensuring that all our visitors and our permanent animals have a safe and stress-free time.

Scan to see the Restricted areas for assistance dogs.

No dogs are allowed on any part of the Zoo site including our car park – with the exception of guide and assistance dogs under specific conditions.

If you have a assistance dog we understand how important your assistance dog is in supporting you during your visit. We have a specific policy that helps us to ensure that all our visitors and our permanent animals have a safe and stress-free time.

Issues of biosecurity – we do ask for confirmation of an assistance dogs inoculation record and free from rabies status. As owners of Assistance dogs that we know you care. We assume that you will understand and respect the reasons for these requests in the light of best animal welfare arrangements.

Whilst we can mitigate against many things we can't mitigate against spread of disease if it was to enter the zoo animal collection.

Regrettably we do not allow Therapy / Emotional support dogs into our zoo. Currently, emotional support animals do not have legal recognition in the way that assistance dogs do in the UK.

Colchester Zoological Society does not allow dogs to be left in cars, even with ventilation and water, anyone found leaving dogs in their car will be refused entry to the Zoo.

ATTENDING SPECIFIC EVENTS

Colchester Zoo has a busy calendar of special events held throughout the year. We want everyone at Colchester Zoo to have a great time and to achieve this we ask that you follow our policies and practices for accessibility.

We understand that for some guests, particularly people on the autistic spectrum, their family and friends waiting in line may be more difficult than for others. We will respond to reasonable requests from guests who have specific needs and are unable to wait patiently in line.

We would expect that the majority of guest with specific needs will have the benefit of holding a 'complimentary assistant' or '+ annual pass' – please have this ready show this to the queue manager at the event as verification of your need.

We cannot do the impossible and make a busy event quiet however we will listen to how you think we can best support you and if possible, we will try to make reasonable adjustment for you.

These may include –

- Asking you to wait near the event so we can call you forward when a space is available.
- Asking you to wait until the main queue has passed so you have a less rushed experience.
- It is unlikely that you will be moved to the front of the queue as this may result in your experience feeling rushed as we have pressure to move others into the event.

Please cooperate with the requests of staff but also be kind and understanding of other's needs who are also having to wait patiently.
